IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE SIDE

CRI. WRIT PETITION NO. 1879 OF 2004

Office Notes, Office Memoranda of :
of Coram, appearances, Court's orders : Court's or Judge's orders and Registrar's orders. :

Ms. Shaila R. Pandey, Advocate appointed for the petitioner.

Mr. D.S. Mhaispurkar, A.P.P. for the respondents.

CORAM: R.M.S. KHANDEPARKAR & P.V. KAKADE, JJ.

DATED: 28TH JANUARY, 2005

P.C.:

1. Heard. Considering the affidavit in reply and other records, the apprehension by the Police as regards the danger to the mother and other family members of the petitioner himself in case of release of petitioner on furlough at this stage, appears to be genuine and justifiable. Besides, considering the case of the petitioner, then in order to complete the formalities regarding documents of pension and provident fund, certainly those formalities can be complied while the petitioner in the jail and in that regard the direction can be given to the respondents to render assistance if required. In the circumstances, therefore, there is no case for entertaining the present petition or to give the direction in the nature asked for. Suffice to say, the respondents to make necessary arrangement for completing the formalities of documents pertaining to the pension and release of provident fund to the petitioner in relation to the service rendered by him.

With these observations, the petition is disposed of.
